SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Bruning, you're recognized for a motion to advance.

SENATOR BRUNING: Mr. Speaker, I move LB 897 to E & R for engrossing.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: You've heard the motion. All those in favor of advancing LB 897 say aye. Those opposed. It is advanced. Mr. Clerk, (LB) 898.

CLERK: (LB) 898, Senator, I have no amendments to the bill.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Bruning, you're recognized to open...or to make a motion to advance LB 898.

SENATOR BRUNING: Mr. Speaker, I move LB 898 to E & R for engrossing.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: You've heard.... Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And, you're correct, they have heard Senator Chambers. I know the way you were phrasing, you were going to say "you've heard the motion", but the way it came out, "you've heard Senator Chambers". And they will hear me again. This bill, this one-liner is interesting to me because it says, "Revisor bill relating to the Nebraska Trauma Systems Development Act." When these kind of bills come up that are not trying to change a program or produce a program, it's possible sometimes to discuss the underlying principles without there being a great amount of controversy generated, because the bill is going to pass. It doesn't do anything that's harmful. But on some of these items that we're dealing with in revisors bills we have the opportunity to think about problems that exist in the society which, at a different time,
